KEEPING UP

The Foster Youth Education Fund, supported by several legislative staff, lobbyists and other members of the Capitol community, is celebrating its 10th anniversary with a Casino Night Gala on Thursday, Oct. 6, from 6-10 p.m. at the California Chamber of Commerce, 1215 K Street, Suite 1400. Tickets are $100 single/$150 couple. The casino night is in addition to the signature annual fundraising fashion show held this year on Sunday, Oct. 9, from 2-4 p.m., at Sacramento State University's Ballroom. Tickets are $25 adults/$15 children. The FYEF raises money for youth who've "aged out" of the system so they may go to college or vocational school. Among the people who have spearheaded the primarily volunteer operation: Kathy Dresslar, Chief of Staff to Senator Darrell Steinberg, Cathy Senderling-McDonald, Deputy Director of the County Welfare Directors Association of California, Joni Pitcl, Project Director of the Child Welfare Co-Investment Partnership, Chantel Johnson, Legislative and Policy Coordinator with California Youth Connection, and Kathryn Scott, Principal with Capitol Partners, Inc. Tickets for both events can be purchased by emailing Senderling-McDonald at csend@cwda.org. Tickets also are available at the door. For general information about FYEF or the events, visit www.fyef.org.
